Habitat Architects

Habitat Architects: established in 1992 by Mr. Ranjot and Mr. Zafar, an architectural firm that provides services ranging for building houses and turning them into homes. It is one of the best architectural firms in India. Their specialized designs for interiors have been quite a lot appreciated in the past times. Habitat Design Consultancy, sister-concern of this firm adds to its credit different kind of projects. Every field covering residential, corporate, commercial, institutional all have been undertaken and completed to satisfaction of the client.

Their name is recited with a tag of being the one of the Best architects in India.

Challenge

Designing a website for architects is the most different part of it all. Their sense of sensitivity for designs is very sharp so, it always required an innovative design theory. The site had to build using both HTML and Flash separately.

Solution

Web design and Flash work:

This endeavor was designed in two different ways using html and flash both the designs have been applauded for their unique features of diversified sections containing information regarding all aspects of construction from building to design. The color scheme used in the site is strictly to the taste of visitors.

Results

- + Unique designs
- + Passionate look and feel
